

Special Lecture of

Prof. Aggée Célestin LOMO MYAZHIOM

“From history of colonization to disabilities studies”

Historian/ Social Anthropologist
University of Strasbourg II, France

Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences will hold a special lecture of Prof. Aggée Célestin LOMO MYAZHIOM, University of Strasbourg II, on July 5th. We hope many graduate and undergraduate students will attend.

The lecture will be held in English.

No registration is needed.

Topics:

Migrants from sub-Saharan Africa and HIV-AIDS in France

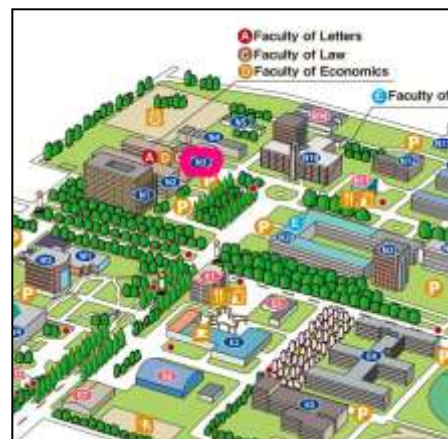

Colonial space and religious rivalries in French Cameroon (1916-1958)

Syncretism and Nativism in Colonial Cameroon (1916-1958)

Date & Time: July 5th, Thursday, 17:30-19:00

Place: Room 356 of Faculty of Letters,
Law, and Economics Building No.1,
Tsushima North Campus of OU.

(On the 3rd floor of N3 on the campus map→)

We have a welcome party after the lecture. When you'll attend it, please send an e-mail to kmatsumura@okayama-u.ac.jp (Dr. Matsumura) by July 3rd.